Attention All Ambitious WFP/CRM/Business Analysts!!!!

- ✚ Rare Entry Level Opportunities Into Management Consulting
- ✚ High profile BPR/Change Mgmt/Cost Reduction Projects
- ✚ Immediate Start - Syd, Bris & Melb locations – Circa $85- $100K Pro rata + Blue Sky Int'l Career Path ++

The need to do more with less and re-think traditional ways of business has never been more relevant than now, and it is here that our client, a highly regarded management consultancy presents a competitive edge. Join this specialist and talented firm of management consultants to help deliver large end-to-end programs of works to their prestigious fin. services clients, and beyond.....

Your current experience working in Operations, and more specifically Workforce Optimisation, combined with your flair for numbers will allow you to take that next career step towards Management Consulting via these newly-created roles. Working on projects that require the right balance between pure analytics and people change, these are career-enhancing contracts for talented individuals who wish to show that they are more than pure analysts. You will be groomed as part of your induction and ongoing training so that you can be both strategic and operational, working as part of a larger project team that focuses on improving systems and workflows, workforce productivity and, ultimately, service levels.

These are significant opportunities for talented, budding WFP Analysts to spread their wings and break out of the day to day. We wish to speak urgently if you closely match the following candidate profile:

- Experience in sales & service environments, ideally in a Workforce Optimisation or Resource Planning function (scheduling, forecasting, etc.);
- A detailed understanding of ops. & performance metrics and MIS tools with a proven ability to read between the lines, extracting insights from data not so obvious to "standard" BAs;
- Superb analytical, problem solving, influencing, comms. & reporting skills;
- Exposure to WFM software (front and/or back office).
